Key Points

- Nanaimo has joined many cities across Canada in marking the tragic events occurring against Canadian Forces personnel this week.
- The Canadian flag will be raised following the forthcoming funerals.

Quotes

"Today our thoughts are with Canadian Forces personnel, their families, the citizens of Ottawa and the citizens St-Jean-sur-Richelieu. As well, our gratitude is extended to all men and women who serve to protect Canadians, our rights, our freedoms and our system of government."
