

NEWS RELEASE

Distributed February 13, 2015

City's Director of Finance announces his retirement

Brian Clemens set to retire in June

Summary

Mr. Brian Clemens, Director of Finance, advised the Mayor, members of Council and staff that he has decided to retire in June of this year. Mr. Clemens has led the City's Finance Department for 15 years and has worked for the City for 27 years.

Strategic Link: N/A

Key Points

- The Director of Finance position is vital to the organization and a requirement under the Community Charter.
- A search for a new Director of Finance will commence immediately.

Quotes

"Mr. Clemens has provided the City with sound financial management and advice to Council and staff. He should be proud that he is leaving the City in a strong financial position. We wish him all the best."

Bill McKay
Mayor
City of Nanaimo

"Brian is a valued member of the City's senior management team and is a highly respected leader to his department and among his peers; his long tenure is a testament to his dedication and commitment to Nanaimo. He will be missed."

Ted Swabey
City Manager
City of Nanaimo

Continued... City's Director of Finance announces his retirement

Contact:

Philip Cooper
Communications Manager
City of Nanaimo
250-755-4532

View the online edition for more information - <http://cnan.ca/1E8fWmd>