Find the Golden Bucket Returns to Nanaimo's Parks

Summary

For a third year, the City of Nanaimo Parks, Recreation and Environment department invites adventurous area residents to 'Search for the Golden Bucket'.

The contest is a great opportunity for the community to rediscover some of Nanaimo's wonderful parks and playgrounds. This year's contest starts June 3 and runs until August 26. Residents are encouraged to watch for clues posted on the City's Facebook page, Twitter feed, website and at recreation facilities.

Strategic Link: Search for the Golden Bucket Contest supports a recreation and leisure lifestyle as identified under the Cultural Vitality pillar.

Key Points

- Weekly clues will be posted online and at recreation facilities on Wednesdays.
- Once you find the bucket, answer the question located inside it.
- Submit your answer to askpre@nanaimo.ca by the following Tuesday.
- Correct answers are eligible to win weekly prizes.

Quotes

"We're looking forward to another summer of fun exploration. Search for the Golden Bucket is an enjoyable way for the community to take a moment to get outside and learn about Nanaimo's spectacular parks and playgrounds."
