City of Nanaimo invites residents to take a walk through Old City Neighbourhood

Summary

In partnership with the Nanaimo Old City Association (NOCA), the City of Nanaimo has released another self-guided heritage tour brochure entitled "A Walk Through Time: Your Guide to Nanaimo's Old City Neighbourhood". At approximately 6.1 km total, the self-guided tour meanders through Nanaimo's historic Old City neighbourhood, highlighting a number of key heritage buildings and sites along the way.

Strategic Link: Heritage walk tours further the goals of the Cultural Vitality (Creativity, Diversity, Heritage and Innovation) pillar of the Strategic Plan.

Key Points

- The Old City "Walk Through Time" is the seventh addition to Nanaimo's series of self-guided heritage tour brochures produced by the Culture & Heritage Department.
- The series includes walking tours of Downtown, Harewood, Newcastle, South End, Nob Hill/Chinatown, as well as a bike tour of Downtown.
- Copies are available free of charge at City facilities, or can be sent directly to residents upon request by contacting the Culture & Heritage Department.

Quotes

"This self-guided tour is a fun way to learn about the Old City neighbourhood and its significant role in the historical evolution of Nanaimo."
