

NEWS RELEASE

Distributed October 23, 2015

Nanaimo City Manager announces his departure

Summary

Nanaimo's City Manager, Ted Swabey, has announced to Council his decision to depart City Hall having accepted a new position as the Chief Administration Officer for the City of Maple Ridge. Mr. Swabey's last day as head of Nanaimo's city administration is set for November 13. A meeting of Council will be convened in the coming days to begin the process of filling the City Manager position.

Strategic Link: N/A

Key Points

- Mr. Swabey began working for the City in 1989. Over his 26 year career he has held several portfolios including planning, development, economic development, protective services and community safety.
- He was appointed to the position of City Manager in 2013.

Quotes

"I'll miss him. Ted is bright, hardworking and knowledgeable; I have thoroughly enjoyed working with him during my first year as Mayor. His dedication to his job, his staff and his community will make him a tremendous asset to the City of Maple Ridge. I wish him all the best in his new role and sincerely thank him for his many years of service to our organization and community."

Bill McKay
Mayor
City of Nanaimo

"My years with the City have provided me many incredible opportunities to be a part of the changes and growth this community has witnessed. Along the way I have had the pleasure of working with a great number of people who have both made, and continue to make, Nanaimo a great place to live."

Ted Swabey
City Manager
City of Nanaimo

-30-

Contact:

Bill McKay
Mayor
City of Nanaimo
250-755-4400

Philip Cooper
Communication Manager
City of Nanaimo
250-755-4532

View the online edition for more information -
<http://cnan.ca/1jZbDFz>