Holiday Closures for City Facilities

Summary

The City of Nanaimo is reminding residents to check the Public Schedule page on the City website to see updated information on swimming, skating and drop-in gym sessions over the holiday season.

All City facilities will be closed on Christmas Day (December 25). Limited swimming and skating will be available on Boxing Day (December 26) and New Year's Day (January 1). Please check the City website for special holiday schedules.

Strategic Link: Taking Responsibility to Be an Excellent Municipal Government

Key Points

- Most City facilities will be closed on Christmas Day (December 25), Boxing Day (December 26) and New Year's Day (January 1).
- Check the Public Schedule page on the City website for up to date facility schedules.
- The gymnasium in the Oliver Woods Community Centre will be closed for floor resurfacing from December 20 through December 29.
- The auditorium in the Bowen Park complex will be closed for floor resurfacing from December 20 through December 26.

Quotes

"Keep your family and friends busy during the Christmas Break by visiting one of the many recreation facilities or parks. Our facilities will be open for a variety of swim, skate and drop-in sessions, but please check the on-line schedule as drop-in times may have changed."
