

NEWS RELEASE

Distributed February 15, 2017

Spring Break coming up quickly

Summary

Looking for an activity for your kids during Spring Break? Look no further! The City of Nanaimo has many day camp options for kids between the ages of three and teen. Who doesn't want to take a Mysteries of Science or Art Attack Camp? There are full day and part day camps available to keep your kids active and smiling during their two week break from school.

Throughout Spring Break, the Nanaimo Aquatic Centre will host the following special themed swimming sessions: Twisted and Tie-Dyed Tuesdays and Freaked Out Fridays. The Nanaimo Ice Centre will host special afternoon Everyone Welcome sessions complete with the 'Game Zone' for recreation hockey along with $2 admission and free rentals. Also happening during spring break is the St. Patrick's Day Everyone Welcome skate session on Friday, March 17 sponsored by Ryan Vending.

A listing of Spring Break camps can be found on pages 32-34 in the current Fall and Winter Activity Guide. Registration for Spring Break camps is available now by calling 250-756-5200 or online at www.nanaimo.ca.

Strategic Link: Social Equity Pillar by providing affordable recreation for our community.
