City Seeking Public Nominations for the 2017 Culture and Heritage Awards

Showcasing excellence in culture and heritage

Summary

The City of Nanaimo recognizes outstanding organizations, groups or individuals in the arts, culture & heritage fields. The public is invited to nominate organizations or individuals for the following award categories:

- EXCELLENCE IN CULTURE
- HONOUR IN CULTURE
- EMERGING CULTURAL LEADER
- JOHN THOMSON HERITAGE MEMORIAL

This is your opportunity to recognize people and groups you believe have made a significant contribution to making Nanaimo a culturally vibrant city. Nominations are reviewed with recommendations being made to City Council. Recipients are recognized at a special celebration at the Port Theatre in April 2017.

Nomination forms are available on the City's website, attached to this press release, or by contacting the Culture and Heritage Department directly.

Nominations will be accepted until November 16, 2016.
