Nanaimo Cultural Committee at Work

The volunteer members of the City of Nanaimo Cultural Committee have had a busy year and are looking forward to another year supporting the local cultural scene.

Recently, the committee hosted a Cultural Forum attended by 50 people representing a variety of art and cultural organizations. The group enjoyed presentations on fundraising, grant writing and a session on collaborative marketing.

A key element of the forum was a discussion about the community's current cultural strategy which was established in 2008. It was clear that the group is committed to the strategy and moving forward.

The group has decided to host working sessions more frequently throughout the coming year to ensure that momentum is not lost. If you are involved in a local arts or cultural group interested in being involved in future sessions, contact Bob Kuhn, Manager Recreation & Culture Services, at 250 755 7512 or email him at bob.kuhn@nanaimo.ca
