

City to Sell Banners

For Immediate Release

November 9th, 2010- Have you long admired the City of Nanaimo banners that line the streets? Well now you can own one of the recently retired banners. As of today, Tuesday, November 9th the blue First Nation Killer Whale design banners will be on sale. They are available at Beban Park Complex and are selling for $10.00/pair.

The banner image was first designed by First Nation's artist Noel Brown to celebrate the new management agreement of Newcastle Island Provincial Park. The banners lined major thoroughfares around the City for the past two years.

Beban Park is located at 2300 Bowen Road and the front counter is open 7am to 7pm daily. Banners will be sold on a first come, first serve basis. Watch for new banners in spring 2011.

-30-

Media Contact

Hannah King
Marketing & Communications Specialist
Parks, Recreation and Culture
City of Nanaimo
250 755 7523
Hannah.king@nanaimo.ca