

“Nanaimo...it’s a Lifestyle” Cover Photo Contest Launches

For Immediate Release

June 8, 2010 - The City of Nanaimo Parks, Recreation and Culture Department is inviting the public to share their images for use in the Parks, Recreation and Culture Activity Guide. If you have an image of people enjoying City parks, taking part in recreational activities or exploring our local culture, you are encouraged to submit it. The winning image will grace the cover of the Fall/Winter 2010-2011 issue and will be awarded a six month family Rec Pass.

“Featuring a community photo on the cover of the Activity Guide is a great chance to show off our parks and programs from a different perspective,” says Suzanne Samborski, Senior Manager of Recreation and Culture. “The images we have received since starting our semi-annual contest have been outstanding, and we are looking forward to featuring another community photo on the cover this fall.”

Images must feature a minimum of one person and a maximum of three people enjoying Nanaimo’s parks, recreation programs or cultural activities. Images must be high resolution (minimum 350 dpi) and high quality to qualify for the cover of the guide. Photos should clearly represent the fall and winter seasons and what Nanaimo’s lifestyle is all about.

Images can be submitted online at www.nanaimo.ca or by dropping off a disc at any of the local recreational facilities. A full list of the contest guidelines can also be found online within the City’s website. The contest will close June 30th, 2010. For more information please call 250 756 5200.
