

PROCLAMATION

DOG HOUSE DAY LITERACY CENTRAL VANCOUVER ISLAND March 1, 2022

- WHEREAS: we celebrate the reunion of cast and crew from the legendary 1990 YTV TV series DOG HOUSE, including longtime Nanaimo community leader Valentina Cardinalli, as they come together online (5 pm PST Tues March 1st) to raise money for Literacy Central Vancouver Island.; and
- WHEREAS: Dog House, the YTV family friendly TV series, ran for 26 episodes from 1990-91; and;
- WHEREAS: a passionate and loyal following of this lovable program has grown in the ensuing decades; and
- WHEREAS: Dog House cast member and longtime Nanaimo resident and community leader Valentina Cardinalli has identified Literacy Central Vancouver Island as a worthy charity to support; and
- WHEREAS: a small video store in a church basement in Saskatoon (NUTFLAKES), run by Dog House acolytes, is hosting an online fundraiser on March 1st 2022, bringing together the cast and crew of Dog House to raise money for LCVI; and
- WHEREAS: we recognize the historical enormity of this pop culture event, its worthy purpose, and the community of Nanaimo's distinct connection and contribution to this cultural moment.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Leonard Krog, Mayor of the City of Nanaimo, do hereby proclaim March 1, 2022 as:

DOG HOUSE DAY ~ LITERACY CENTRAL VANCOUVER ISLAND

in the City of Nanaimo, Province of British Columbia.

Leonard Krog
MAYOR
Dated this 24th day of February 2022

