

NEWS RELEASE

Distributed July 15, 2014

Settlement reached with Nanaimo Daily News for Leadercast cancellation

Summary

The City has paid $14,000 to the Nanaimo Daily News to settle all costs related to the cancellation of the Leadercast event. In addition, the City's legal fees associated with the cancellation totaled $6135.

Strategic Link: Taking Responsibility to be an excellent municipal government.

Key Points

- The Leadercast event was cancelled following Council's May 5th motion to disallow the organizers to use the Vancouver Island Conference Centre.
- On July 3, 2014, Council rescinded the May 5th motion. The motion to rescind was unanimously supported.

Quotes

"Following the events of May 5th, a settlement between the City of Nanaimo and the Nanaimo Daily News has now been reached."

John Ruttan
Mayor
City of Nanaimo

-30-

Contact:

John Ruttan
Mayor
City of Nanaimo
250-755-4400

View the online edition for more information - <http://cnan.ca/1ktfVio>