

NEWS RELEASE

Distributed December 22, 2014

Transit tickets and monthly passes available for sale at City SARC building

City Service and Resource Centre makes buying tickets and monthly passes easier

Summary

In order to enhance municipal service delivery and provide for the provision of a One-Stop Shop Customer Service Centre, the City of Nanaimo is now selling all BC Transit - Regional District of Nanaimo Bus Tickets and Monthly Passes from the Service and Resource Centre (SARC) located at 411 Dunsmuir Street.

Strategic Link: Working towards becoming a city that effectively responds to the accessibility and mobility needs of those who do not own a car - e.g. teens, older seniors, people with disabilities, low income groups, visitors (ferry, air and cruise ship) and those making environmentally sustainable choices.

Key Points

- Regional District of Nanaimo BC Transit ticket and monthly passes are now easily available for purchase from the Service and Resource Centre (SARC).
- Service and Resource Centre enhances customer service while providing additional opportunities.

Quotes

"Service Centre Staff are excited to be partnering with the Regional District of Nanaimo to sell transit tickets and passes."

Nelda Richardson
Manager Development Support Services and Business Licencing
Community Development Department

Quick Facts

- By selling monthly transit passes and tickets from the SARC, while working and living in the downtown, all individuals will now have more choices for making their day to day purchases within their immediate environment.

Continued... Transit tickets and monthly passes available for sale at City SARC building

Contact:

Nelda Richardson
Manager Development Support Services and Business Licencing
Community Development Department
250 755-4448

View the online edition for more information -
<http://cnan.ca/13VruNM>