Quotes

"I have known Tracy for a number of years. She is an intelligent and committed individual. I look forward to working with her over the coming months."

Bill McKay
Mayor
City of Nanaimo

"Tracy brings to the City a wide range of executive experience, including knowledge across all levels of government. Her work at the City will provide critical support to Council and leadership to staff during this interim period. Given the importance of this position, Council is pleased she is able to begin immediately."

Gord Fuller
Acting Mayor
City of Nanaimo

"I put my name forward because I believe I can provide the strong principled leadership required at this critical juncture. My first priority is to provide Council with the information they need to govern effectively in an open and transparent manner. My second priority is to support staff to do their work in a positive work environment. I already know there is a depth of expertise within each departmental team that I can rely on and work with. I am hopeful that my direct and frank approach to leadership and our respective accountabilities will serve the City of Nanaimo well during this interim period. I understand how important it is that Council finds the right City Manager for Nanaimo in 2016."
