City seeking applications for 2022 Social Planning Grants

$85,000 in funding available for local non-profits and neighbourhood groups

Summary

Beginning October 8, 2021, the City of Nanaimo will be accepting applications for the 2022 Social Planning Grant Program. The program aims to assist organizations in responding to issues of a social nature with initiatives that enhance social cohesion, address the root causes and effects of poverty, contribute to the vitality of our community and foster social inclusion and social equity.

A total of $85,000 is available under two separate grant categories: Community Vitality Grants and Social Response Grants. Community Vitality Grants are intended to support small projects with a total budget of typically less than $5,000. Social Response Grants are intended to support larger initiatives. Total funding available for each grant is as follows:

- Community Vitality Grants: $25,000
- Social Response Grants: $60,000

Ongoing operational expenses cannot be funded through the grants.

All applications should address one or more of the following priorities: Social Equity, Community Diversity, Community Wellness and Vibrant Neighbourhoods.

Organizations that apply for funding must be based in Nanaimo and/or be proposing a project that primarily serves Nanaimo residents. Eligible organizations include non-profit societies, recognized religious groups and neighbourhood associations recognized by the City of Nanaimo.

Past projects that have received funding have addressed issues such as literacy, substance abuse, social isolation, community connectivity, homelessness and food security.

More details regarding the 2022 Social Planning Grants are provided in the Grant Guidelines and Criteria and application forms available on the City of Nanaimo's website at www.nanaimo.ca/goto/SocialPlanningGrants. The deadline for submitting applications is 4:00 p.m. on Monday, November 15, 2021.

Strategic Link: Promoting the community value of Social Equity by reducing the effects of poverty overall, increasing citizen safety and nurturing health and inclusivity.
