Bicycle Film Festival rolls into Nanaimo

Summary

On October 1, 2022 Bicycle Film Festival lands in Nanaimo for the first time and will kick-off Fall Go By Bike October 3-16, 2022.

Playing at the Malaspina Theatre at Vancouver Island University, the series of short films will appeal to a wide audience from film connoisseurs to avid cyclists and everyone in between. Film highlights include "Two gravel cyclists exploring the east Kootenay region of British Columbia" and "All Bodies on Bikes".

The community is invited to attend the free pre-event, sponsored by Modo Carshare, starting at 4:30 pm in the Parking lot in front of the Vancouver Island University Welcome Centre. Malaspina Theatre doors open at 6:30 pm with general seating. Tickets to view the short films are $15.00 per person and can be purchased online now. Parking will be available but arriving by bike is recommended. The Bike Valet will be on site safe guarding your ride until the film ends at 9:00 pm.
