

PERMANENT FULL-TIME COMMUNITY SAFETY OFFICER

(Competition 23-69)

Position Overview

The City of Nanaimo is seeking a permanent full-time Community Safety Officer to join our Community Safety Team. Under the general direction of the Director, Bylaw Services, the incumbent investigates complaints from the public, City departments, Council and other government agencies with respect to alleged infractions of the City's regulatory bylaws and undertakes appropriate action to gain compliance by negotiation, Council or Court actions. This position focuses on providing municipal supports and responses to the community and vulnerable citizens on issues including public disorder, homelessness, addictions and mental health challenges. Incumbents will conduct highly visible day and nighttime patrols, including bike patrols, throughout the community with emphasis in the downtown area, involving extensive contact and liaison with the business community, first responders, public safety, service organizations and unsheltered citizens.

Qualifications

Applicants must have Completion of Grade 12, Bylaw Compliance, Enforcement and Investigative Skills 1 and 2 from the Justice Institute of BC, and a valid Class 5 BC Driver's Licence. A minimum 2 years' directly related experience in the enforcement of municipal bylaws or clinical experience working in crisis response and homeless outreach and is required for this position. An equivalent combination of education and experience may be considered.

Additional Information

This is a unionized position. $39.72 per hour - after Probation (Jan 2023 Rate), based on a 40 hour work week. The wage level for this position is subject to confirmation under a union/management jointly negotiated job evaluation plan.

Shortlisted applicants may be required to undergo a criminal record check and/or a verification of their education credentials.
