

MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN YOUR COMMUNITY Call for Applications – Council Committees

Do you have a desire to get involved with your community by contributing to Council's decision-making processes and helping shape City policy? If so, we encourage you to apply for one of the limited volunteer positions that are currently available on the following Council select committees:

- Board of Variance – 5 positions available.
- Community Planning and Development – 2 positions available.
- Community Vitality – 2 positions available.
- Nanaimo Youth Advisory Council – 4 positions available.
- Public Safety – 1 position available.

The term of office for the committee positions listed above will be until December 2018, or as determined by Council, excluding the Board of Variance which has a three (3) year term.

For more information about committees including mandates, eligibility requirements, time commitments and responsibilities, please see the Terms of Reference, Operating Guidelines and Application Form on the City's website at www.nanaimo.ca under Your Government/Boards and Committees.

Interested residents need to submit a completed application form to Legislative Services by 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday, May 1, 2018 by:
