Proof of Vaccine
Required

What the BC Vaccine Card looks like

You can save the digital version to your phone or tablet or print a paper copy to carry in your wallet. Both options are accepted everywhere.

Digital card

Paper card

What your vaccine card shows

Partially vaccinated

- One dose of vaccine
- Doesn't meet the proof requirement

Fully vaccinated

- Two doses of vaccine
- Your booster dose won't affect your card

No record found

- We don't have a record of your vaccination
- Get help to update your record

Checking ID

Events, businesses and services will ask to see your BC Vaccine Card and a piece of valid government photo ID, for example:

- B.C. driver's licence or BC Services Card
 - You can use your interim driver's licence, usually printed on yellow paper
- Passport
- Photo ID issued by another province or territory

If the name on your B.C. driver's licence or BC Services Card does not reflect your current name, you should update your ID. For example, your current name may be different if you've recently been married, divorced or legally changed your name.

Out of Province or Out of Country Visitors

People who don't have B.C. ID

People who don't have a B.C. ID are also required to show proof of vaccination. You might not have B.C. identification if:

- You're visiting from another place
- You just moved here

People from other provinces or territories

People from other Canadian provinces or territories must show:

- Provincially/territorially officially recognized vaccine record
- Valid government photo ID

International visitors

International visitors must show:

- Proof of vaccination they used to enter Canada
- Passport

Canadian and US Armed Forces

Members of the Canadian and US Armed Forces don't need to get a BC Vaccine Card.

Canadian Armed Forces can use their National Defence Canada COVID-19 vaccine record or card and National Defence ID card.

Visiting US Armed Forces can use their US Military proof of vaccination and US Military ID card.
