

2013 GREEN NANAIMO AWARD RECIPIENTS

(Advisory Committee on Environmental Sustainability)

The purpose of the Green Nanaimo Awards is to recognize individuals, businesses, schools and organizations from all over the City who make valuable contributions toward protecting and enhancing Nanaimo's natural environment.

Mr. David Grey in the category of Environmental Awareness	As a teacher at Woodlands Secondary School, David encourages students of the Environment Club to organize and participate in a wide variety of environmental initiatives on topics such as environmental awareness, energy conservation, cycling and food security.
Mr. Jean-Michel Hanssens in the category of Green Home / Neighbourhood with Distinction	An active member of the Harbour City River Stewards, Jean-Michel has volunteered many hours toward local stream restoration projects, particularly in Departure Creek. His efforts have been a source of significant community building and public awareness, inspiring others to do more for the environment.
Mid-Island Co-op in the category of Healthy Living	The Mid-Island Co-op has demonstrated significant leadership by supporting a wide range of environmentally- and socially-responsible organizations such as the Nanaimo CarShare Cooperative, and sponsoring events such as the annual Green SolutionsTrade Show.
