

PROCLAMATION

UGLY CHRISTMAS SWEATER DAY December 18, 2020

- WHEREAS: the original Ugly Christmas Sweater Party was held in Coquitlam BC and became an annual Christmas tradition; and
- WHEREAS: each December, British Columbians are encouraged to wear Ugly Christmas Sweaters and spread Christmas cheer in the community by connecting, giving, reconnecting and being kind; and
- WHEREAS: while wearing their Ugly Christmas Sweaters, British Columbians are encouraged to give to those less fortunate and make an effort to do a little more for those that need a lot; and
- WHEREAS: while wearing their Ugly Christmas Sweaters, British Columbians are encouraged to reconnect with someone with whom they were once close and to take that first step to reach out, forgive and embrace.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Leonard Krog, Mayor of the City of Nanaimo, do hereby proclaim December 18, 2020 as:

UGLY CHRISTMAS SWEATER DAY

in the City of Nanaimo, British Columbia.

Leonard Krog
MAYOR

Dated this 17th day of December 2020

