Attention: Reece Harding

Dear Mr. Harding:

Re: Water Act Appeal - City of Nanaimo v. April 29, 2015 Order of the Comptroller of Water Rights regarding CWL C061424 & C061423 Colliery Dams

As you will be aware by now, the Board has rendered its decision on the stay application in the above-noted matter and the stay has been denied. The Board has directed the Comptroller to impose new timelines for completion of the Comptroller's order of April 29, 2015, respecting the Lower Dam (the "Order"). As such, I have been instructed to advise you of the next steps expected of your client.

In order to account for the Comptroller's agreement to an interim stay pending the Board's decision on the stay application, the Comptroller now directs that the City comply with all requirements of paragraph 1(a), (b) and (c) of the Order by July 24, 2015. All other components of the Order remain the same.

Concurrently, the Comptroller is considering the compliance and enforcement options available to him.

Compliance is expected of the City. The Comptroller looks forward to receiving deliverables in his office by the specified deadline.

Sincerely,

Pamela Manhas
Barrister and Solicitor
